SEMINAR FOR TEACHERS - MERATE

British Council Milan is pleased to invite teachers to a seminar on the Cambridge English examinations, Key and Key for Schools to be held in Merate. The seminar will be led by Louise Green who is a Cambridge oral examiner with considerable experience of teaching English in the Italian school system. There will also be a chance to ask questions and sample materials for you to take away.

The seminar is free of charge and will take place on Thursday 27th October 2011 from 16.30 to 18.30 at the Istituto Comprensivo di Merate, Via Collegio Manzoni, Merate Lecco. It will include an overview of each of the Key and Key for Schools papers with suggestions for class activities to practise the various skills tested. It will be of interest to anyone teaching English to scuola media students regardless of whether they do the exam or not.

Please fill in the attached form and fax it back to the British Council (02 781119) or email it to esami.milano@britishcouncil.it to let us know if you will be attending.

An attestato di frequenza will be issued to each participant at the end of the seminar.
