

Saturday
1st March
14.30-16.30

Working with the Millennium Generation

With the digital future already here, teachers need to make sure they're up to date! The seminar will look at the latest Mobile Learning tools and how they are already being used in teaching and learning. Special focus will be on the mobile learning platform 'Edmodo', what teachers need to do and how this platform can aid teaching and add immense value to our classes.

Marion Odell, British Council, Milan

Saturday
1st March
17.00-19.00

Dramatis Personae: William Shakespeare

A repeat performance of an extravaganza constructing and deconstructing received knowledge of Shakespeare while underscoring the richness and pervasiveness of his work. Attempts at holding lectures on his life/ works are interrupted by characters taking over the scene. The performance finishes with a clip on Shakespeare's invasive presence in contemporary culture. Language: Italian.

Massimiliano Mancina, direttore artistico, Il Teatro dell'Armadillo/Teatro Inaudito di Rho (Mi)

Saturday
15th March
15.00-16.30

Intonation and Rhythm

While intonation and rhythm are of considerable importance in spoken English, teachers may well feel unsure about how to tackle them in the classroom. This talk will offer solutions by giving a brief overview of the issues involved and how to overcome them, and will also propose practical ideas for class work. The last 15 minutes will be dedicated to Young Learners.

Katie Harris, British Council Milan

Saturday
15th March
17.00-19.00

Cambridge English: Advanced (CAE) - The Speaking Test

This seminar focuses on student requirements at CAE level, explains how the exam is assessed, offers tips for avoiding common pitfalls, provides a wide variety of activities developing the appropriate skills for the speaking test and also adds suggestions on ways in which to impress the examiners!

Jessica Smith, Cambridge English Speaking Examiner and Team Leader

Saturday
22nd March
17.00-19.00

Great Grammar and Wonderful Words

This seminar illustrates how to introduce elementary pupils to vocabulary and grammar by means of practical, engaging exercises and the use of new technological instruments. It will present lesson plans aiming at teaching the four skills via interactive activities, role play, songs and games, etc.

Elizabeth Evans, freelance teacher and teacher trainer. Sponsored by CELTIC Publishing

Saturday
29th March
17.00-19.00

Access to Higher Education

This talk will present various options for studying abroad, from yearly and semester programmes to Foundation, Undergraduate and Masters courses. The aim is to offer families, students and teachers an overview of the many options as well as requirements, application forms, timing and deadlines.

Jane Pollard, U4You Educational Consultants

Please book at <http://www.britishcouncil.org/it/italy-english-milan-booeko.htm>

The seminars are free of charge

British Council, Ente accreditato dal MIUR per la formazione con DM 90/2003, art 1, comma 2

BRITISH COUNCIL, Via Manzoni 38, 20121 Milano